

MY OPUS

Jeffrey A. (Jeff) Kramer

“A master in the art of living draws no sharp distinction between his work and his play; his labor and his leisure; his mind and his body; his education and his recreation. He hardly knows which is which. He simply pursues his vision of excellence through whatever he is doing, and leaves others to determine whether he is working or playing. To himself, he always appears to be doing both.”

~ L. P. Jacks

Overarching Vision (my big dream)

Imagine a tribe of leaders, established or aspiring, who are committed to building a better world - Physical, Cultural, Social, Familial or Spiritual. A tribe of people who see a need for leadership in their world, and seek to fill it. A tribe of people with integrity, character and a servant's heart, who are willing to invest in themselves in order to grow so they can serve themselves and others.

Imagine a cause based on providing growth opportunities and resources for leaders. A cause planned around training and coaching leaders through self-reflection and deep personal growth. A cause meant to create ascending leaders.

Imagine a space designed for leaders to grow. A space founded on nourishing and encouraging hearts and minds. A space where leaders are able to speak freely, share safely, and learn greatly. A space constructed for empowering leaders to reach new heights.

Purpose (the defining statement of my work)

Encouraging, equipping and empowering leaders to reach new heights.

“The two greatest days in a person’s life are the day they are born, and the day they discover why.”

~ Mark Twain
